

Psychiatrists who disappeared or were arrested:

1. Eduardo Llosas. Detained in San Luis since April 1975 without any charges. Held since then in the Penitentiary of Rawson. Former priest and physician of the Psychiatric Hospital in San Luis.
2. Nicolas Esnoro. Detained since February 1976, accused of belonging to a left political organization. Distinguished psychoanalyst and Director of Racker Clinic of the Argentine Psychoanalytic Association. Held in Unidad Penal number 9 in La Plata.
3. Claudio Bermann. Detained since April 27, 1976. First held incommunicado in the Penitentiary of Cordoba until December. He was then translated to the Penitentiary of Sierra Chica in Buenos Aires Province. He is being held at the disposition of the Executive Branch, without any charges; his name has not appeared in any of the lists of detainees being publicized. He was denied the option to leave the country. Former Professor of the University of Cordoba and Director of the Neuropatic Institute.
4. Francisco Bellagamba. He was kidnapped from his home in April 1976. Until now, nothing is known about his whereabouts, in spite of many inquiries. Renowned and very well known psychoanalyst and member of the Argentine Federation of Psychiatrists.
5. Antonio Calabrese. Arrested in April 1976 without any charges. He had to be hospitalized due to the terrible prison conditions and to his unhealthy condition. After six months, through the Consulate of Italy, he was translated to his country (Italy). Prestigious physician of the Colonia Olaya Hospital (in Cordoba).
6. Carlos Sassatelli. Arrested in May 1976 at the Hospital Colonia de Santa Maria (Cordoba). He was held first incommunicado at the Penitentiary of Cordoba until December. He was then translated to the Penitentiary of Sierra Chica in the Province of Buenos Aires. He is being held without any charges. Scientific Secretary of the Center Area of the Argentine Federation of Psychiatrists.
7. Raul Fuentes. Disappeared on June 28, 1976. Nothing is known of his whereabouts. Prestigious psychiatrist from La Rioja; representative of the Center Area of the Argentine Federation of Psychiatrists.
8. Juan Carlos Bisqu. Arrested at his home in July 1976. Nothing is known since then on his whereabouts. Prestigious psychoanalyst, has done many scientist studies and was Secretary of the Argentine Federation of Psychiatrists.

ARGENTINA PROJECT (S200000044)

U.S. DEPT. OF STATE, A/RPS/IPS

Margaret P. Grafeld, Director

(X) Release () Excise () Deny

Exemption(s): _____

Declassify: () In Part () In Full

() Classify as _____ () Extend as _____ () Downgrade to _____

Date _____ Declassify on _____ Reason _____

80 D 177

Box 4855

9. Roberto Pargament. Arrested at his home in September 1976; where he was barbarously tortured and beaten. "Beat him more strongly because he is a Jew", her wife - seven months pregnant - heard from another room. Psychiatrist and distinguished member of the School of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy.

10. Blanca Tarnopolsky. She, together with her husband and daughter, were kidnapped in June 1976. Until now nothing is known about their whereabouts. It is perhaps the most dramatic case. Distinguished psychopedagogue; author of several books on the subject.

11. Alejandro Pastorini. Arrested in Rosario in May 1976. He is being held without any charges, and he has not been released since then. Member of the Litoral Section of the Argentine Federation of Psychiatrists.

12. Sylvia Berman's daughter Irene and the boy friend of her youngest daughter, Damian Alfredo Soto. They were kidnapped in November 1976. Nothing is known of their whereabouts since then. Her house and her car were robbed. Former President of the Argentine Federation of Psychiatrists.

13. Rosa Mitnik. Kidnapped in November 1976. Nothing is known on her whereabouts since then. Distinguished psychoanalyst and member of the Argentine Federation of Psychiatrists.

These are just the more important cases, but there are many more.